Becoming a GSEF partner

Being a GSEF partner means:

- ▶ Supporting an international and renowned network, and being associated with influential SSE actors from all over the world (local governments, civil society organizations, researchers, social enterprises...);
- ▶ Strengthening your social commitment by actively participating in the construction of a more inclusive and sustainable economy;
- ▶ Widening your expertise by accessing innovative experiences and impact strategies at the international level;
- ▶ Contributing to reducing poverty, inequalities, and tackling climate change, and being completely in line with the implementation and respect of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the United Nations, by supporting initiatives in favor of decent work, social entrepreneurship and local development.

Supporting the GSEF offers you several opportunities and benefits:

- ▶ Increased visibility on the GSEF communication tools
 - Presence on our website and social media;
 - Integration in our communication supports (reports, brochures, newsletters...);
- ▶ Privileged access to the events and the expertise of the GSEF
 - Invitation to General Assemblies as observers;
 - Access to webinars and thematic activities organized by the GSEF;
 - Opportunity to participate in the GSEF Global SSE Forum, organized every two years.

In short, becoming a GSEF partner means:

- ▶ Highlight your work within a broad international network, with the opportunity to participate in a Global Forum where tomorrow's solutions are being shaped.
- ▶ Joining an international network that places people and the planet at the core of the economy, by contributing to develop concrete solutions to meet social and environmental challenges, and to structure an ecological and united economy for generations to come.
